DAYTON, Ohio, April 11, 1967 --- The annual Certified Public Accountant Review course, co-sponsored by the Special Sessions Department of the University of Dayton and the Dayton Chapter, Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants, will begin this Saturday, April 15, in the Kennedy Union at UD.

The course is split in two sections. The Accounting Theory and Practice portion will begin April 15 and run five Saturday sessions through May 13. Program will begin at 8:30 A.M. each session and conclude at 4 P.M. Second part, Auditing, will start April 19, and run four Wednesday sessions through May 10. Time is 7 P.M. to 9:30 P.M.

Instructors for the course are Edward W. Rodgers and Willard C. Clark, both CPAs, and Assistant professors of Accounting at UD. Mr. Rodgers is director of the review course.

Subject matter is selected to cover those areas which are given most importance in the actual CPA examinations. Problem solving techniques will be studied and the skills of each candidate will be developed to acclimate and condition him for the examination.
